

Organization: Seven Oaks House Museum

Position Title: Assistant Curator/Manager (YCW internship)

Position Term: May 8 to September 11, 2024 (18 weeks)

About Us

One of Winnipeg's oldest structures, Seven Oaks House Museum was built for John and Mary Inkster between 1851 & 1853. The restored dwelling is open to the public from the May Long Weekend through to Labour Day. Guided tours are offered during open hours and admission is by donation.

Ross House Museum is operated on behalf of the City of Winnipeg by the Board of Seven Oaks House Museum. Built from 1853-1854 for William and Jemima Ross, it was used as the first Post Office in Western Canada. The restored dwelling is open to the public from June 1st until August 31st. Guided tours are offered during open hours and admission is by donation.

Both museums offer visitors an immersive glimpse of life during the 19th Century through the eyes of prominent Scottish-Metis families, and preserve important collections of cultural heritage from the Red River Settlement.

Employment Terms

Seven Oaks House Museum is a seasonal operation and is open to the public from May 18th through to September 1st, from 10:00am-4:00pm Wednesday through Sunday.

Ross House Museum is a seasonal operation and is open to the public from June 1st through to August 31st, from 10:00am-4:00pm Wednesday through Sunday.

Employment is paid at the rate of $18.50 per hour.

The position is full-time (35 hours per week) for an 18 week term, beginning May 8th and concluding September 11th, 2024. Each day includes a 30-minute, unpaid lunch break.

The Assistant Curator/Manager may be engaged on a casual basis around these dates for “pre-season” work such as hiring seasonal staff, to assist with late-season events, and to facilitate the physical and administrative shut-down of the museums.

During the open season it is expected that the Assistant Curator/Manager will attend all signature events, and schedule their work according to the needs of the museums.

Position is subject to a 6-week probationary period, from the date of employment, during which time either party may terminate employment with 1 week's notice.

Seven Oaks House Museum is committed to supporting equity and diversity in the workplace. We encourage applicants to voluntarily self-declare if they are members of the Government of Canada's job equity groups, such as women, persons with disabilities, candidates who identify as Black, a Person of Colour, Indigenous, Métis or Inuit peoples, or those in the LGBTQ2 community.

We recognize that diverse life and learning experiences may be equivalent to academic or professional qualifications, and we invite any eligible individuals to apply.

This position is funded in part through the Young Canada Works at Building Careers in Heritage program, and all applicants must be registered in the YCW candidate pool and meet the current YCW-BCH eligibility criteria. An individual may be eligible for an internship if they:

- are a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident, or have refugee status in Canada (non-Canadians holding temporary work visas or awaiting permanent resident status are not eligible);
- are legally entitled to work in Canada (have a valid social insurance number);
- are between 16 and 30 years of age inclusively at the start of employment; and
- are a college or university graduate (certificate, bachelor's, master's or doctorate).

Note: Priority will be given to graduates that have not previously participated in YCW internship programs and that are unemployed or underemployed.
